Future of Meetings

The Meetings Show offers an unrivalled platform of inbound and outbound business and brings together the heart of the meetings community. The Meetings Show offers a fully hosted buyer programme for pre-qualified key decision makers from the UK and Europe. In addition to this, unprecedented industry support and a powerful marketing campaign attracts thousands of additional trade buyers from across the corporate, association, agency and public sectors.

What is new in meetings technology? This year The Meetings Show is creating an area exclusively for start-ups giving you the opportunity to tell us!

Benefit as an exhibitor in this innovative area with:

- Opportunity to meet pre-qualified event planners/buyers via pre-schedule appointments
- An appointment diary, online marketing opportunities
- Location in the technology area on the show floor
